Mrs. Bedford 2d, Mayor Gaynor's Daughter, in Reno

Establishing of Residence in Nevada by Her Causes Rumor of Divorce.

special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. Rano, Nev., July 9 .- It was learned to-day that Mrs. E. T. Bedford 2d of New York, daughter of the late Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York, has established a residence here. She came here about the middle of last February, accompanied by her mother and a younger sister.

The news from Reno that Mrs. E. T. edford 2d had established a residence Nevada, presumably for the purpose of obtaining a divorce, comes after a separation extending over two years. A report that the daughter of the late Mayor Gaynor contemplated such an action was in circulation several months ago, but could not be substantiated.

Mrs. William J. Gaynor was not in her home at 9 West Ninth street yesteray, and an effort to reach Mr. Norman Gaynor, brother of Mrs. Bedford, at his stry home in Westhampton, L. I. Nor could her other brother, Mr. Rufus W. Gaynor, be seen.

Mrs. Bedford is the third daughter of Gaynor. . Her marriage to a son of Mr. F. H. Bedford, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company, took place six years ago. They have a son, E. T. Bedford 5d, now 5 years old. Until eir separation they maintained residences in Brooklyn and Glen Cove. There have been no intimations as to the causes leading to the separation. Mrs. James Park, a sister of Mrs. Bedford, obtained a divorce from her first husband, Mr. H. K. Vingut, in Nevada a year ago. Her marriage to Mr. Park took place in San Francisco last soon after she and Mrs. Vingut Conviction on Charge of Possessing an Obscene Book Is Reversed.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court reversed yesterday judgments of conviction against Harper & Bros. and the president of the corporation, Clinton T. Brainard, on charges arising from the publication of the novel "Madeleine." Justice Dowling dissented.

The Society for the Suppression Vice accused Harper & Bros. and Mr. Brainard with "unlawfully possessing an obscene book in violation of the pro-visions of section 1,141 of the Penal law of the State of New York." information alleged that the story was Harper & Bros, explained that the book is an autobiography of a woman who "fell" voluntarily to ameliorate the conditions of her family. The corporation, through counsel, contended that the book was not salacious, as the history of this girl's life taught the lesson that the wages of sin is death unless there was a, miraculous regeneration such as Madeleine experienced. In analyzing the evidence the court declared that Mr. Brainard, in any event, was not guilty of offending the statute, as the evidence glowed clearly that the acts of the corporation, even if criminal, were not within his person; knowledge. The manuscript was passed upon while he was abroad and published without his personal reading addition to concurring with Justice Smith's opinion Justice Clarke wrote me of his own in which he said: "The finding of obscenity is against the evidence." Upon learning of the court's decision Mr. Brainard, who was secretary of the Extraordinary Grand Jury, made the ollowing statement:

"The decision of the court is
